How to use this book

To use a spell, look at the spell's name and say "Burrito Power, Activate!" to activate the spell.

Spells

You may need to actually use some spells. I will give you some spells you can use.

Here are some spells. Read the following chapters for the spells.

Burrito Summon

This creates a burrito with beans and beef in it as well as a wheat tortilla. This is the most basic spell. This spell is technically vegan as matter is being created out of thin air to make the burrito.

Flying Burritos

Creates 2 burritos that you can put each foot on each burrito and then you can fly on the burritos. To control it, you look up to go up, look down to go down, look to a cardinal direction, and to float in midair, you then say “stop” in your mind (to continue flying, say ”go” in your mind). The burritos fly up to 5 meters per hour (0.00310685596 miles per hour). The burritos have beans in them as well as a flour tortilla.

Burrito Gun

Creates a gun made of metal burritos that shoots the same burritos that Burrito Summon creates but with spikes made of sharpened lightly salted tortilla chips with the tip being covered in Dragon's Breath pepper sauce on the front of the burritos.

It's Raining Burritos

Causes it to rain burritos outside instead of water. It stops after 24 hours.

Burrito Car

Creates a car made of burritos that is the same thing as a Tesla Model S, but is made of burritos.

Burrito Ray

Creates a giant burrito that can shoot an orange ray that turns people into talking sentient burritos that have to hop in order to move and have no limbs. The sentient burritos have beef and beans in them as well as a flour tortilla.

Burrito Genie

Creates a sentient talking floating burrito that can grant 3 wishes per genie summoned.

Burrito Computer

Creates a computer made of burritos that runs burritoOS (a Unix-like OS based on the Chimichanga kernel that uses .burrito files for apps, extensions, and other system items as well as user-made items and calls files “burritos“ and uses the BFS (Brrito File System) file system, but when file from the computer are put into a foreign file system, a .burrito extension is added).

Burrito Bodyguards

Creates bodyguards made of burritos of which their punches have 500,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 Newtons of force.

Love Burrito Summon

Creates a burrito that is like the burritos made by Burrito Summon, but with the power to make 2 people or animals that eat the burritos to fall in love with each other when looking at each other.

Healing Burrito Summon

Creates burritos similar to the burritos made by Burrito Summon, but the burritos heal all emotional and physical injuries upon eating the burrito.

Good Luck Burrito Sumon

Creates burritos that bring good luck and have beans, beef, and a flour tortilla as the ingredients.

Death Burrito Summon

Creates burritos that are like the burritos made by Burrito Summon, but upon eating the burrito, the person or animal eating the burrito immediately dies.

About the Author

The Burrito Wizard is a sentient burrito that writes many books and can do magic. Don't make him mad, else he will turn you into a sentient burrito! Yes, the Burrito Wizard eats souls.
